

On-Line, Instructor Led Training

Fire Alarm Fundamentals

(Formerly Basic Fire Alarm Systems)

NFPA 72-2019 and NFPA 70-2017

Tuesday, September 20 and Thursday, September 22, 2022
1:00 to 5:00 PM, EDT

This basic application course is beneficial for new or experienced installers, sales personnel, service technicians, plus building and fire inspectors involved in acceptance testing and/or plan review. Topics include a review of system fundamentals, components, battery set and voltage drop calculations, initiating devices and notification appliances and fire safety control functions. Instructor: Ray Grill

Registration Pricing:

AFAA Members: $250

AFAA AHJ Members: $150

Non-Members: $400

Not a member?
Join today and receive instant
member benefits and discounts!
AHJ's can join AFAA for $25!

Register Here

Receive a certificate for 7 contact hours of continuing education. Must attend Part 1 & 2 to qualify.

Instructor: Ray Grill is a Principal of Ray Grill Consulting, PLLC. He is licensed as a fire protection and mechanical engineer in several states and has over forty years experience in fire protection engineering. Ray is a past president of the Society of Fire Protection Engineers and is a Fellow of the Society. Ray serves on several NFPA technical committees and IBC General Code and Fire Safety Code Development Committees.

Questions, or Need More Info?

Contact AFAA at (844)438-2322

www.afa.org or training@afa.org

